

National Conference Scholarship
Recognizing Excellence in Nursing Students

Submission deadline: May 31st, 2019

Dear Chapter Members,

The National Association of Hispanic Nurses (NAHN) will be awarding 2 students a scholarship to attend the 44th annual national conference in Reno, Nevada (7/16-7/19/2019). The scholarship covers the conference registration fee, it does NOT cover additional expenses including travel, lodging, and meals. In order for the New Jersey chapter to fairly select two students interested in attending the conference, interested students are asked to meet the following requirements:

1. Have a current NAHN-New Jersey membership.
2. Must have attended at least 1 chapter meetings.
3. Must be currently enrolled in a nursing program and is in good academic standing.

If you would like to be considered, please submit an essay, 250 words or less (using Times New Roman – 12 font), outlining your understanding of the importance and impact of Hispanics in nursing leadership roles.

The national conference is a fantastic opportunity to be inspired, meet leaders in the nursing profession, and learn ways NAHN is making an impact in the health of the Hispanic community as well as network with nurses from all over the United States. We hope you can take advantage of this great opportunity that will influence your future as a professional nurse.

Please email your essay submission by May 31st, 2019, to the Scholarship Committee to njnahn@gmail.com. Any further questions can be sent via email or by phone at 609.491.3381. Students selected will be notified by June 3rd, 2018.

Best regards,
